(54) Title: WASHING AID DISPENSER AND WASHING MACHINE COMPRISING SAID DISPENSER

(57) Abstract: The present invention refers to a washing aid dispenser for a washing machine. The dispenser (2, 102) comprises at least a compartment (3, 103), which is adapted to contain the washing aids and is provided with a first siphon (8, 108) having a pre-determined suction height (h) and at least a second siphon (14, 114) having a higher suction height (H) than said first siphon (8, 108). The first and second siphon (8, 14, 108, 114) are adapted to draw in and convey towards the washing tub of the machine layers of the washing aids mixed with water lying at different heights in the dispenser (2, 102).
